

Past-President

Jane Wilburne

Assistant Professor of Mathematics Education

Penn State University
777 West Harrisburg Pike
Middletown, PA 17057

Work: 717-533-3355

Home: 717-533-3355

Fax:

jmw41@psu.edu

Jane Wilburne is an Assistant Professor of Mathematics Education at Penn State Harrisburg in Middletown, PA. She teaches undergraduate and graduate mathematics education, and undergraduate mathematics courses. Dr. Wilburne previously taught at Shippensburg University, West Chester University, and the University of Delaware. Her teaching career began with the City of Buffalo Public Schools where she taught secondary mathematics and served as a Title I coordinator. She has presented at National and International conferences on issues related to mathematics education. Dr. Wilburne has held numerous local and state leadership roles, including serving on the board for the Pennsylvania Association of Mathematics Teacher Educators and Pennsylvania Educational Research Association. She has written numerous articles for Mathematics Teacher, Mathematics Teaching in the Middle School, and Teaching Children Mathematics, as well as for state level journals. She has also written several chapters for the Pennsylvania Council of Teachers of Mathematics Yearbooks. She received her B.A. in mathematics from D'Youville College, an M.S. from State University College at Buffalo, and an Ed.D. from Temple University. Jane can be reached at jmw41@psu.edu.