Arlene Dowshen is an associate professor of mathematics education at Widener University where she teaches mathematics and mathematics methods courses for preservice elementary and early childhood teachers and pre-service secondary mathematics teachers. She also supervises elementary and secondary mathematics student teachers and has taught middle school mathematics in Camden, NJ. Currently Dr. Dowshen is also the coordinator of the Academic Service-Learning Faculty Development Program at Widener University. Dr. Dowshen was the project director for “Enhancing Mathematics Content Knowledge and Pedagogy for K-6 Teachers,” a three-year grant from the PA Department of Education; this grant provided professional development for teachers, administrators, and staff at elementary schools in Chester, PA. She is a frequent presenter at local, statewide, and national mathematics education conferences and is coeditor of IMAGES, A Resource Guide for Improving Measurement and Geometry in Elementary Schools and IMAGES: A Resource Guide for Improving Measurement and Geometry in Elementary Schools. She received her A.B. in mathematics from Douglass College, an M.S.W. from the University of Pennsylvania, and her M.Ed. and Ed.D. from Temple University.
